

Maschallah (mā šā' a-llāh)

in verschiedenen Schriftstilen

The image shows the word 'Maschallah' written in a highly stylized Eastern Kufi script. The letters are thick and angular, with a prominent vertical stroke on the left and a long, sweeping tail on the right. The overall appearance is geometric and bold.

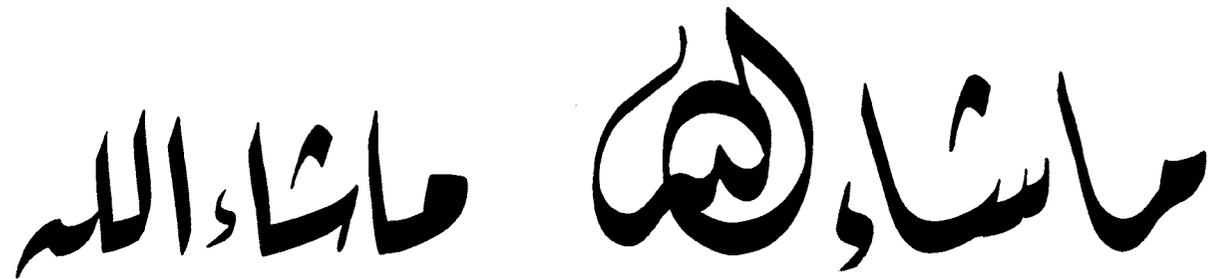

Östliche Kūfī
persisch

The image shows the word 'Maschallah' written in a Nashi script. The letters are more fluid and rounded than in the Kufi style, with a distinct 'serif' on the bottom right of the final letter. The script is clean and elegant.

Nashī / Neshi
arabisch / osmanisch

The image shows the word 'Maschallah' written in a Maghribi script. The letters are more compact and rounded, with a clear distinction between the letters. The script is well-balanced and easy to read.

Magribī
maghrebinisch

The image shows the word 'Maschallah' written in a Ruq'a script. The letters are very rounded and flowing, with a high degree of connectivity between them. The script is highly decorative and characteristic of Ottoman calligraphy.

Ruq'ā
osmanisch

The image shows the word 'Maschallah' written in a Diwani script. The letters are extremely rounded and compact, with a high degree of connectivity. The script is highly decorative and characteristic of Ottoman calligraphy.

Dīwānī
osmanisch